RE: Front-end Developer

Dear Hiring Manager,

I see that you are hiring for Front end Developer and I believe I can add value to your team as my background is strongly aligned with the requirements listed for the position. I have +2 years of experience in front-end development, good knowledge of web services and I am very interested in the role.

Based on my experience and accomplishments, I am confident I will bring my unique visioning ability to your company.

I would welcome the opportunity to speak to you further about my background.

Please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,
Atieh Amini
